

www.iCUBED.us is an online magazine that hopes to provide a safe haven for young people like you to interact with each other and to keep in touch with what is happening in the world beyond your doorstep. iCUBED.us is a webzine for, by, and about teens aged 13-to-21.

We'd like to provide opportunities for students aged 13 to 21 to have a taste of work responsibilities by offering the following one year internships, which although unpaid, will provide students with a sense of accomplishment as well as build real work experience. As a regular columnist for iCUBED.us writing around a particular topic, your opinions will be read by students around the world and you end our year-long Blogger's Internship with a writing portfolio as excellent as you make it. We provide the space and some general guidelines, you provide the words.

TOPICAL BLOGGERS – this internship entails writing 1 or 2 blog entries a month on a selected blog title in our selection of 9 blog titles. (The reward for this internship is the regularity of the work which over time becomes a portfolio of published writing for the teenager, plus giving a copy of iCUBED.us Anthology)

PLEASE VISIT US at www.iCUBED.us . And, if you are interested in our blogging internship, fill in the form below (including a brief bio about you), tell us about yourself, and send no more than three writing samples to EDITOR@iCUBED.us.

Please select ONE BLOG CATEGORY (of the 9 listed below)
<input type="checkbox"/> Books, Papers, ETC	<input type="checkbox"/> Music & Pets	<input type="checkbox"/> Sports, Fitness & Health
